Sundown Radio Exclusive

Lyle Blackburn's Monstro Bizarro Podcast Invades 96.6's Airwaves!

MONSTRO BIZARRO – Created by Ghoultown's founder, Lyle Blackburn, tune into this new and unique podcast that examines real-life cases of cryptids, paranormal horrors, and other monstrous mysteries. Check out more at: www.lyleblackburn.com

Article By Big Bad Daddy Wolf Radio DJ

LYLE BLACKBURN has always been a fear favorite of mine! Between his band, Ghoultown, and his work with the Boggy Creek Fouke Monster, I have admired his tireless dedication and expert intelligence toward the cryptid and paranormal communities, which we are so entangled with here in Sundown.

But I couldn't be happier to announce that Mr. Blackburn has not only started a fantastic podcast called Monstro Bizarro, but that he has also agreed to become a macabre member of our Sundown community by sharing his work and podcast episodes with our scare-town radio station, 96.6 WOLF.

Though details are being worked out as to when the podcast will appear on our haunted airwaves, you can expect Mr. Blackburn with his infamous black cowboy hat to introduce you to his monster world sometime very soon.

While you wait, be sure to check out his wonderful, fang-tastic website, www.lyleblackburn.com, where you can find all of his work, music, books, and everything else creepy and rad!

96.6 WOLF is truly proud to feature Mr. Blackburn's Monstro Bizarro podcast, and Sundown welcomes this new dark soul to our terror town. Stay alivin' and jivin', Sundown, and stay tuned for upcoming dead air details!

SPECIAL SECTION – LOCAL SIGHTINGS

A NEW CRYPTID OR A ZOO ESCAPEE? From Sundown Zoo

Over the 4th of July weekend, the following photo was captured by the Sundown Zoo’s security camera at approximately 1:41am early July 4th.

If you or someone you know has information regarding this monster, please contact our local Paranormal Police Hotline at: 1-900-966-WOLF or tag us in your Instagram or Twitter post with your ideas.

Is this a new cryptid creepy citizen in Sundown, an escaped animal experiment gone wrong at our local zoo laboratory, or something else entirely?

We look forward to hearing from you, macabre members of Sundown!

Be safe out there, and as our own Big Bad Daddy Wolf always says, stay alivin’ and jivin’!

Sundown Creepy Citizen SPOT-light for July

SIR RODERICK WETTSTONE
Radio DJ – “Twisted Tales”

This month’s citizen spotlight is Sir Roderick Wettstone, who is the radio host for a long time show on 96.6 WOLF called, “Twisted Tales”.

Twisted Tales started out as a radio program long ago, then the best episodes were collected and released on a digital album, which you can still purchase at our Bandcamp website (search for Twisted Tales or Big Bad Daddy Wolf). You can also hear the creepiest episodes on 96.6 WOLF.

Sir Wettstone has a strangely calming voice, as he guides his listeners from his Southern swamp mansion through all original short stories of terror and horror, which often teach lessons like twisted fairy tales. Plus, there is a whole new season coming soon, including special releases too. So stay tuned!
