Dr. Ghoul is the ultimate creepy host, bringing you the best B-movies, radio stories, and new Suspense! OTR shows.

Interview By Big Bad Daddy Wolf Radio DJ

DR. GHOUL is always on the move and is a voracious horror host who has several projects going on at once, but that doesn't keep him from loving every minute of scaring his fans (as well as making them laugh)! Scares run through his bloody veins all the time, and as you will hear in a recent interview conducted by Big Bad Daddy Wolf for 96.6 WOLF Sundown Halloween radio, Dr. Ghoul is exactly the kind of creepy citizen Sundown is proud of!

Accompanied by his all-knowing sidekick, The Movie Nut, Dr. Ghoul can be found live presenting the best B-rated Horror Movies at Coastal Rep in Half Moon Bay, CA, which is presented by fellow radio station KHMB 100.9 FM.

But Dr. Ghoul also has his Radio Show on 96.6 WOLF everyday at 12pm EST for your lunch hour entertainment, followed by his Suspense! Old Time

Radio Show, where he presents rare and never-heard-before episodes of the infamous show Suspense! that he has exclusive access to.

Most importantly, Dr. Ghoul combines the vintage horror style of horror hosts from the past along with fresh, dark comedy that is sure to leave a lasting impression on his fans.

Check out the interview this coming Friday (June 24th) at 1pm EST on 96.6 WOLF, as well as on our YouTube channel on Saturday (June 25th).
